7. To report the business of NEACURH and NACURH to the Executive Board and General Assembly including, but not limited to, NEACURH and NACURH winning OTMs.

Section III: Terms of Office

- A. The terms of office for the Executive Board Members of the Torch Chapter shall be one year, spanning from the closing ceremonies of the NACURH Annual Conference to the following closing ceremonies of the NACURH Annual Conference.
1. If the closing ceremonies of NACURH fall after the graduation date of the graduating officer, the Executive Board Member's term will begin at that graduation date.
 - i. The terms of the office for the Executive Board Members shall be one year spanning from NYU commencement to the following NYU commencement date.
- B. If an Executive Board Member becomes vacant in the middle of the term, the position shall be filled by an active member of NRHH with majority approval of the members present at the next General Assembly meeting.
1. In the event of a vacancy, the President shall assume responsibilities of the role or delegate the responsibilities of the role until it is filled.
 2. If the position vacant is that of the President, the Membership Chair will assume the role of president until the vacancy is filled, as mentioned in Article VII, Section II.C.

Section IV: Removal from Office

Any Executive Board Member of the Torch Chapter may be removed from their position at any time of the year due to chronic absence or neglect of responsibility. The procedure is as follows:

- A. A motion to recommend removal of a member must be made in writing to the Advisor(s).
1. The Executive Board will investigate and consider this request.
 2. A simple majority (one half plus one) of the Executive Board will be required to initiate the process of removal.
 3. Since the person under review is a member of the Executive Board, that person must excuse themselves from the discussion and vote.
- B. In the event that the Executive Board votes to initiate the process to remove an Executive Board Member, a hearing shall take place at the beginning of the next regularly scheduled meeting of the General Assembly.
1. At least 10 business days prior to this hearing, the President or Membership Chair shall notify all voting members of the General Assembly, especially the Executive Board Member(s) directly involved in the process, of the reason(s) the removal process was initiated.

2. The member under review may be present at the hearing to hear the arguments for their removal and to present their defense.
3. The General Assembly shall vote by secret ballot on the removal of the member under review immediately following the hearing. A three-quarters (3/4) vote of the quorum present shall be required to remove an Executive Board member.

Section V: Removal of Membership

Any member of the Torch Chapter may have their membership revoked at any time of the year due to chronic absence or failure to meet membership requirements. In addition, membership may be revoked if a member fails to maintain good standing with NYU or RLHS or fails to meet the Torch Chapter's GPA requirements. The procedures are as follows:

- A. In the event that the member has failed to meet membership requirements for two consecutive semesters, the member will be notified of the commencement of the Member Removal Process.
 1. The Executive Board, primarily the President, Membership Chair, and Advisor(s), must complete the NRHH Member Removal Application.
 - i. This form can be obtained from NEACURH's AD-NRHH.
 - ii. The form must include the electronic signatures of the Torch Chapter President and Torch Chapter Advisor.
 - iii. This form must be submitted electronically.
 2. The completed Member Removal application shall be submitted to NEACURH's AD-NRHH for approval.
 3. The number of members for removal is up to the discretion of the Torch Chapter.
 4. It is the right of NEACURH's AD-NRHH to deny requests for removal for reasons including, but not limited to:
 - i. Submission of an incomplete application form
 - ii. NEACURH's AD-NRHH does not believe that sufficient measures have been taken by the Torch Chapter to address the member's inactivity or ineligibility within the Torch Chapter prior to submission of the application.
 5. If the member and/or Torch Chapter wish to appeal the decision, they may appeal to the NEACURH AD-NRHH through written request as to why the candidate deserves to continue as a member of NRHH.
- B. In the event that the member fails to maintain good judicial standing with NYU or RLHS, or falls below the GPA requirement of the Torch Chapter, the following procedure will instead be adopted:
 1. The Advisor(s) will reach out to the member in question, notifying them of the cause for the initiation of the Member Removal Process.
 - i. The Advisor(s) will maintain discretion of the member's case, as mandated by NYU policy, unless the member expresses the desire for the details of their case to be shared with the President.
 - ii. If details of the case are shared with the President, the President may be included in the Member Removal Process, and will provide a student perspective during the hearing and decision-making process.

2. A hearing may be scheduled where the case for removal will be presented by the Advisor(s) and, if included, the President.
 - i. The member under review may be present at the hearing to hear the arguments for their removal and to present their defense.
3. The Advisor(s) and, if included, the President, shall determine whether the member shall be removed, placed on probation, or maintain membership. The member under review shall be notified of the decision following the hearing.
4. If the hearing results in the removal of the member from the Torch Chapter, the appropriate parties will submit the NRHH Member Removal Application to the AD-NRHH.
5. Should the member return to good standing, they may submit a written request for an appeal of the decision, with an explanation of why they feel their membership should be reinstated.
 - i. The appeal request will be reviewed by the parties involved in the member's removal and hearing.
 - ii. The Advisor(s) and, if applicable, the President, will determine whether membership will be reinstated to the individual and will notify the member of their decision following the appeal.

Article VIII: Advisor

- A. There shall be at least one Advisor to the Torch Chapter.
- B. The Advisor(s) shall be selected by the vote of the current Executive Board.
- C. All grievances regarding the Advisor(s) should be directed to the RLHS staff members.
- D. The duties of the Advisor(s) shall be:
 1. To hold regular meetings with the President, Executive Board, and General Assembly.
 2. To attend General Assembly and Executive Board meetings.
 3. To act as an impartial observer of the organization, providing objective assistance to the President, Executive Board, and Torch Chapter membership.
 4. To act as the liaison between the Torch Chapter and RLHS at NYU.
 5. To develop and implement Executive Board bonding events.
 6. To oversee the Member Removal Process when the cause of removal is due to judicial standing or GPA.
 7. To collaborate with the President in implementing the Member Removal Process when the cause of removal is due to a failure to meet other Membership Requirements.
 8. To conduct semesterly GPA and judicial assessments of all members.
- E. The Advisor(s) will maintain the position from the commencement date of NYU to the following commencement date of NYU, and may be reselected after one year.

Article IX: General Assembly

- A. The General Assembly will be chaired by the President and will consist of every member of the organization.
- B. General Assembly Meetings

 - 2. Program Categories: Community Service Program, Diversity Program, Educational Program, Social Program, and Passive Program.
- C. The criteria for each nomination are to follow that of the national affiliation. OTM awards for Professional/Graduate Staff Members and RCA/OA are local categories, but shall follow the general criteria for selection, as set forth by the other categories.
- D. To submit a nomination for an award, a nomination form will have to be filled out and submitted by 11:59PM on the last day of the month. The nomination must meet the word limits as outlined in the OTM nomination form and by NACURH.
- E. The winning OTM award for each category will be voted on during the OTM selection meeting, set for the first General Assembly meeting of the month unless changed for holidays.

Article XII: Honor Cords

Honor cords shall be given to individuals who have met the requirements of an On-Campus or Off-Campus Member, as defined in Article V Section II, upon graduation.

Article XIII: Finances

- A. The annual dues will be paid for the next academic year prior to the end of the current academic year to NACURH.
- B. Permission for spending Torch Chapter funds is granted by the President, the Business Administration Chair, and/or the Advisor(s).
- C. Funds for the Torch Chapter are allocated by RLHS.

Article XIV: Chapter Reports

- A. As mandated by the NACURH Information Center (NIC), the Torch Chapter shall submit to the National Office a list of new members, the names of officers, the name of the Advisor(s), a copy of a revised Constitution (if amendments were made), a re-affiliation form, and any other pertinent information as requested by the NIC.
- B. The aforementioned paperwork will be submitted for the next academic year prior to the end of the current academic year.

Article XV: Amendments and Bylaws

- A. Amendments
 - 1. All proposed amendments to the Constitution must be read and approved by the General Assembly.
 - 2. Amendments to the Constitution may be ratified by a simple majority vote of the quorum present.
 - i. Quorum, for constitutional amendment voting, is defined as at least one-third (1/3) of the General Assembly, excluding members who have semesterly excused absences through academic conflicts or university leaves of absence, and at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Executive Board.
 - 3. An amendment can be proposed at any time during the academic year.
 - 4. All changes made to membership requirements, membership types, and membership selection processes take effect the semester after they have been approved.
 - i. All changes affecting probationary membership status take effect two (2) semesters after they have been approved.
- B. By-Laws
 - 1. By-laws, regulations and policies not conflicting with any provisions of this Constitution may be enacted by a majority vote.

2. Torch Chapter by-laws, regulations, and policies must comply with national by-laws, regulations, and policies.
3. By-laws may be ratified by a simple majority vote of the quorum present.

Article XVI: Statement of Non-Discrimination

The Torch Chapter shall not discriminate based on race, gender and/or gender identity or expression, color, creed, religion, age, national origin, ethnicity, disability, veteran or military status, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy, genetic information, marital status, citizenship status, or on any other legally prohibited basis in any of its policies, procedures, selection, practices or membership. The Torch Chapter also does not discriminate against the following non-legally protected identities in any of its policies, procedures, selection, practices, or membership: socioeconomic status, political affiliation, legacy status, tentative graduation date, or residence hall.

Article XVII: Organization Conduct

The Torch Chapter agrees to adhere to the NYU policies.

Article XVIII: Enactment

This Constitution shall go into effect after ratification of the Torch Chapter upon acceptance by two-thirds (2/3) of the quorum present.
